God wants to have mercy on all

09:00

1. This depiction of lady justice illustrates a few things we'd like to avoid when it comes to our spiritual life.
2. The balance: What you've done will be weighed exactly against the standard.
3. The blindfold: You can't get out of it because you're special.
4. The sword: If the balance finds you guilty, consequences will follow.
5. But, God arranged His plan specifically so He could show mercy
6. It's hard for us to understand, because we're used to how our justice system works.
7. Governments seek out the wrong-doers for the expressed purpose of bringing them to justice.
8. Our Lord sought out wrong-doers to help them avoid the justice they deserve.

└ God wants a relationship with people

God wants a relationship with people

Jeremiah 31:31-34

31 Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, 32 not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the Lord. 33 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the Lord. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

- Know what sin is, why it separates us from God, and what God has done about it in the New Covenant
- Examine why it is easy for us to strive for perfect lawkeeping rather than faithfulness
- Consider ways to keep the guilt of past sins from damaging your current relationship with God

└ The importance of faithfulness

└ 'The Law' is both a thing and an idea

'The Law' is both a thing and an idea

The thing: The written Law of Moses
The idea: Justification through a system of works

09:50

1. We sometimes try to shoehorn every instance of the word 'law' into meaning simply the Law of Moses.
2. Why do we do that? Because there are many so-called 'Christians' who would say that you don't have to do good works to go to heaven.
3. These people misunderstand the word 'law' to mean that any attempt to do good works is futile and has no bearing on whether or not you enter heaven.
4. So, to combat that, we say, 'Well, these passages are talking about the Law of Moses, not just doing good works in general'.
5. But, if we treat the word 'law' as meaning simply the Law of Moses, we are taking large chunks of the New Testament and saying, "That doesn't apply to me."
6. Paul in particular uses the term 'law' to fill a bigger concept. And, it does, I believe, have application for us.

└ I Will Forgive Their Sins

10:10

I Will Forgive Their Sins

Sin separates us from God.

- Law shows us what's right and wrong
- God's plan forgives our sins...
- And, keeps Him just.
- The plan required the blood of Jesus

Our lack of perfection is frustrating

- People who love God want to do what's right
- But we can be frustrated because we're not perfect.
- Jesus is the solution to those problems, too.

Have faith in your forgiveness

- No condemnation exists for those in Christ.
- You have to trust God.
- Bolster your faith through the Word.
